

MUSIC IN THE ORATORY'S LITURGY

The London Oratory is internationally recognised as one of the outstanding custodians of classic Roman Catholic liturgical traditions. Solemn Latin Mass and Vespers are celebrated on all Sundays and obligatory Holydays in the year. In particular, the great liturgies of Christmas, Holy Week and Easter attract packed-out congregations.

To serve the liturgy the Oratory Fathers have fostered a unique musical establishment, comprising three separate choirs plus a professional music staff.

Services regularly performed with choral and organ music:

Tuesday: 6.30pm Benediction Oratory Junior Choir

Saturday: 6.00pm First Mass of Sunday London Oratory School Schola

Sunday: 10.00am Family Mass Oratory Junior Choir

11.00am Solemn Latin Mass Choir of the London Oratory

3.30pm Latin Vespers Choir of the London Oratory

All holydays of obligation:

On the eve 5.30pm Solemn First Vespers Choir of the London Oratory

On the day 6.30pm Solemn Latin Mass Choir of the London Oratory

Other major feasts are also provided with music.
